Diana Tassara is a graduated lawyer from Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú. Her practice is focused on Concessions, Project Finance and Merger and Acquisitions.

She has participated in several concessions and project finance transactions. She has been a member of the team advising the SSA Marine International and Grupo Brescia in the tender process organized by the Private Investment Promotion Agency (Proinversión) to award a BOT concession contract to build and operate the Paita Port in the north of Peru for around US $ 200 MM, and to Keppel Seghers Engineering Singapore in the tender process organized by Proinversión to award a BOT concession contract to build and operate the Taboada Waste Water Plant for around US $ 380 MM.

She has also participated in several mergers and acquisitions such as the sale of Banco del Trabajo and Recaudadora S.A. to The Bank of Nova Scotia and the sale of retail chain Merpisa S.A. to Hipermercados Metro S.A. (a related company of Supermercados Wong, currently the Peruvian largest chain of supermarkets).

Prior to joining Rebaza, Alcázar & De Las Casas Abogados Financieros, she was an intern at the Legal Department of Banco de Comercio.
